

Teton School District No. 401

CHARTER SCHOOLS

10040

Review of the Charter School

The Board shall retain the right to review, at least annually, the degree to which the charter school is meeting the terms of the petition. The Superintendent or designee may have a District representative or an independent evaluator:

1. visit the charter school;
2. review the charter school's records and data;
3. directly survey the charter school's parents/guardians, students, employees;
4. audit the books of the charter school;
5. pursue any other reasonable means of determining accountability for the charter petition.

To enact any of the above measures, the Superintendent or designee must state the specific nature of the concern and the concern must be substantial. The request must be reasonable in terms of the timing and the amount or types of information required.

Annual Report

A charter school which is approved by the District shall annually submit a report to the District. The report shall:

1. include an audit of financial operations conducted by an independent auditing firm;
2. include an audit of the charter school's programmatic operations, which includes a report on student progress as outlined in the school's petition;
3. provide for an annual student profile including: socioeconomic data; mobility rates; enrollment and departures; number of special education students, types of disabilities; programs for and dollars spent on special needs students; number of minority students; student achievement and progress; and attendance rates.
