Keynote Speaker:
Lieutenant Governor Brad Little

Idaho's Lieutenant Governor Brad Little will provide the keynote on Monday afternoon. Join us as we hear his thoughts on the legislative session, school funding, education task force, continued funding of the Career Ladder, and whether any possible tax cuts will have an impact on that.

MONDAY

★ How ISEE Reporting Affects Public School Funding ★

About this Workshop:

- Attendance and Enrollment Guidance
Understanding the process of attendance and enrollment and how this will maximize your funding. Accurate attendance is the single most important area to completely understand in order to achieve the highest support possible. Understanding reporting timelines and ADA that calculates the support unit that drives funding.
- Salary Based Apportionment
Understanding the importance of who you hire. Understanding the worth of support when hiring instructional staff, pupil services, administrative and/or non-certified staff members. Information about the Career Ladder and what it means for funding. Understanding the reporting timelines and the data that is used for calculating Salary Based Apportionment.

TUESDAY

★ What Is Your Role In Public School Finance ★

About this Workshop:

We all have a role in public school funding. Learn about the differences in the roles as well as the checks and balances that are built in to help provide oversight, accountability, and the opportunity to build a team approach to finance. The panel will take time to discuss roles for the board member, business manager, and superintendent. Our panel will provide an understanding of roles and answer your questions.
