

June 14, 2021 (Updated Oct. 11, 2021)

Current TSD401 Re-open plan: <https://docs.google.com/document/d/17yi2r0YRDRIpbjLUaJ9XVyuZI4UIQgmzN4eUFw4BP6k/edit?usp=sharing>

STUDENT AND STAFF EXPECTATIONS, ALWAYS:

- Stay home if you are sick
- Regular sanitation of school building, buses, facilities with a deep focus on high traffic areas
- Regular hand washing and use of hand sanitizer
- Sanitize desk area before switching classes
- Masks/Face coverings (approved per EIPH guidelines) are always an option, even when there is not a mask requirement in place
- Efforts in indoor learning spaces to maintain and support physical distancing
- Continued awareness and education around staying healthy and distancing to prevent the spread of germs
- Review updated CDC and EIPH guidelines
- Remote Learning Option available to all students K-12 on a quarterly basis

SCHOOL BASED COVID-19 DECISION MAKING

All Covid-based decision making will occur at the school level unless stay-at-home orders are made by EIPH, Teton County, or the State of Idaho.

School Based Decision Making Factors under Consideration

- Positive Cases in school community
 - Students
 - Staff
- Possible Exposures in school community
 - Students
 - Staff
- School Instructional Capacity
 - Covid based staff absences
 - Non-Covid based staff absences
 - Substitute availability
 - Building Staffing

Teton School District 401-----2021-2022 Proposed Levels of Response in Schools

Schools may make adjustments to

- Mask requirements
- Internal schedules
- Learning environments
- Sanitation routines
- Event schedules and expectations

In response to positive cases, principals will complete contact tracing that may result in quarantines.

Decision Making Resources

Positive Case Quarantine (Follow EIPH and CDC updated guidance)

Close Contact Quarantine (Follow EIPH and CDC updated guidance)

State sports guidelines provided by Idaho High School Activities Association

Community numbers, and positive cases of students and/or staff, will be monitored through the summer as we prepare for the 2021-2022 school year.